

Youth Choir Sings Praises

12/05/10 - 05:58 PM

Panama City, Fla:

Sounds of Christmas fill the air in downtown Panama City Sunday afternoon.

The Bay County Christian Youth Choir presented the lessons and carols concert.

Crowds packed out the First Presbyterian Church in downtown Panama City, to hear all the holiday favorites.

The Bay County Christian Youth Choir is made up of 40 kids in grades 8th through 12th from Bay County. Several different churches are represented in the group too.

The next big event is the festival of choirs at the first united Methodist church tomorrow at 7 P.M.

High school choirs from all around the area will be participating.

Copyright 2010 WMBB-TV